Roll of Honour

The Barry Wratten Prize for Resilience 2022

The criteria: a combination of two or more of the following:

- Determination to face challenges
- Perseverance to fulfil their potential
- Generous and thoughtful to others
- Dependable in character

The prize this year is awarded to: Jamie Campbell

Nominee 2021-2022	Criteria	Nominated by
Jamie Campbell	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Determination to face challenges • Perseverance to fulfil their potential • Generous and thoughtful to others • Dependable in character Jamie is a remarkable young man who has been through so much. He never complains and was a pleasure to teach and support. He showed so much determination to complete his GCSE's. I have never met such a determinate young person and I believe many other staff would agree with this nomination. He cares so much about others and always put others first before himself.	Student Services
Jamie Campbell	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Determination to face challenges • Perseverance to fulfil their potential • Generous and thoughtful to others • Dependable in character I would like to nominate Jamie Campbell for the Resilience Prize as I feel he fully meets all the criteria given and, due to his circumstances, has needed to show these every day for many years, he has done this so quietly and consistently with little fanfare or complaint despite often very difficult circumstances.	Rebecca Sanders, Tutor
Oliver Shanks	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Determination to face challenges • Perseverance to fulfil their potential • Generous and thoughtful to others Oliver has shown exceptional determination and resilience recovering from an operation. Facing his nerves on starting a new school. Showing perseverance with learning and improving his results. He is loyal, kind, caring, and consistently reliable and can be depended on to show the correct attitude towards learning.	Rebecca Shanks, mother
Josh Woolford	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Determination to face challenges • Perseverance to fulfil their potential We would like to nominate Josh for showing incredible perseverance and determination in overcoming a rib injury in September, which caused him intense, persistent pain with multiple relapses until Christmas. Regardless, through his conscientiousness, good behaviour and enthusiasm to learn he still reached his Trustees' Commendation in May.	James & Helen Woolford, parents

Freya Davis	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Determination to face challenges • Perseverance to fulfil their potential Throughout the past couple of years, Freya has received support for personal reasons. Despite this, she has stayed true to herself and been able to express her feelings in a healthy way and realise that even though she has sometimes struggled, she has learnt to be kind to herself and blossom.	Milly Wareham, mother
Adam Corke	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Determination to face challenges • Perseverance to fulfil their potential • Generous and thoughtful to others Adam always thinks of others and never lets people down. With his cheerful smile, he always works hard and through his perseverance, he has secured a great work experience placement and has been selected to go to the next World Scout Jamboree.	Paul Corke, father
