Annual Careers Convention Thursday 28th November 2024 - 6pm to 8pm

This fantastic event brings together a huge range of employers, colleges, universities and training providers keen to meet you in person, inspire you about careers and education pathways, and tell you about what they can offer you. Below are some suggestions of what you can expect to gain by attending.

Education and training providers can tell you about:

- Careers and the education pathways to them
- Post-16 and post-18 qualifications and what they can lead to
- Apprenticeship training provision and apprenticeship employers
- Why you should study/train with them
- Admissions and entry criteria (including portfolio requirements)
- Bursaries and scholarships
- SEND and pastoral support
- Campus locations

Employers can tell you about:

- Careers relevant to their organisation
- Why you should work for them
- Apprenticeships - what they offer, when they recruit and what skills and experience they are they looking for
- Internships and graduate schemes
- Work experience placements
- Seasonal/part-time jobs
- Diversity and Inclusion
- Office locations and international opportunities

We also have a series of talks by providers

- Careers at Hinkley Point C - HPC-EDF
- Digital and Technology Careers - Why Tech Jobs aren't just for coding ninjas! - Aviva
- Do you want to be a Doctor? Are you considering studying Medicine? - University of Bristol
- Aviation Careers - easyJet
- An Introduction to Apprenticeships - Thatchers Cider
- Why go to University? Choosing a University and Course - Cardiff Metropolitan University
